Dear Sylvia,

Thanks for your letters of 3/26 and 29.

Buckley's National Review was at 150 E 35 St. as early as the beginning of 1964. I checked a few issues for ads from Alliance, just in case, but found none. Nonetheless, they may be related enterprises. Hope you can check this out further.

I thought it was fairly obvious that the button in the Curry photo was a button (cf. CE ~~40~~ 602). Glad you checked out the testimony.

Is the Security Studies pamphlet by the WC's Alfred Goldberg? I guess I will get a copy.

The best rumor going around on the Bonner book is that Hill of the DPD had a lot to do with it. Bonner reportedly didn't even have (or know what was in) the 26 volumes.

Some more on the Klein's ads, and on CD 75.705-6, enclosed.

Sincerely,

Paul

PS: I hope to be able to spend a week or so in the Archives at the beginning of May, after the American Physical Society meeting in Washington. Any specific requests or general suggestions?
