Dear Sylvia,

Thanks for your letter of the 5th. Here's your original index, one copy, and Bob Katz' piece on Lane.

Re Harold's letter of 8/7, about giving your index to people. I've been assuming that it's unrestricted - that copies can be given to ~~the~~ press people, Congressmen, ex-HSC staff, or whoever. Let me know if I'm wrong. (I think we can pick up a few points by making this kind of material freely available.) I'm glad you did this work.

Progress on the book is slow, and I'm not ~~very~~ comfortable with the situation. We'll see in a couple of weeks whether we have a book together or not. It's been quite hectic and tense.

On the single bullet theory: the fact is that the HSC did most of the things we had been ~~asking~~ asking for, and none of them disproved the SBT; while there are problems with what they did, I can't see turning their ~~proof~~ proof into ~~disproof~~ disproof. I'm not ~~satisfied~~ satisfied by what they did on the condition issue, of course, but I haven't yet heard a coherent alternate explanation of the JFK-JBC wounds. Since the acoustics seems to be holding up, I don't feel any personal desire to debate the SBT, or to study the issue myself - at least not now, given the other priorities. If someone can establish massive fraud with the evidence - not just postulate it - the situation will be different, of course.

Regards,

PLH
