

KENNEDY:

I KNOW WHO KILLED HIM

By HOWARD REYNOLDS

MAN has broken a 14-year silence to claim he knows who killed President Kennedy. The assassin, he says, was a Dubliner, Dominic Galvin, a former dockworker who came back in the Republic of Ireland.

He says a four-man Cuban murder squad led by an Army officer called Alvarez Rodriguez, was sent to Cork in June 1963 during Kennedy's Irish tour.

The mission was to kill Kennedy and the men were ordered to follow Kennedy to Dallas, Texas, where the U.S. President was killed on November 22.

The Dublin Mirror has published a revelation that a Dubliner, Mrs. Hara, who has reportedly challenged the official story of Kennedy's death.

Mrs. Hale is a member of A.C. The Assassination Committee for the Struggle.

She has the largest private collection of information on Kennedy outside America, a 200-volume set which she has based on the Sunday Mirror's recent examination of the Kennedy affair.

Plot

Mrs. Hale said of Galvin's claim: "This is the first time anyone has admitted an assassination plot in Ireland."

The Dubliner, according to Mrs. Hale, met the Cuban in the early 1960s when the Cuban was a ship's officer.

They met again by chance in a Cork hotel in 1963 and Rodriguez told him of the plot.

Galvin said: "He said Cuba had ordered Kennedy's death because of America's attempts to 'kick him out'."

Two years later Galvin learned Rodriguez had been killed "because he knew too much."

A 'recipe' for mass murder

By REVEL BARKER

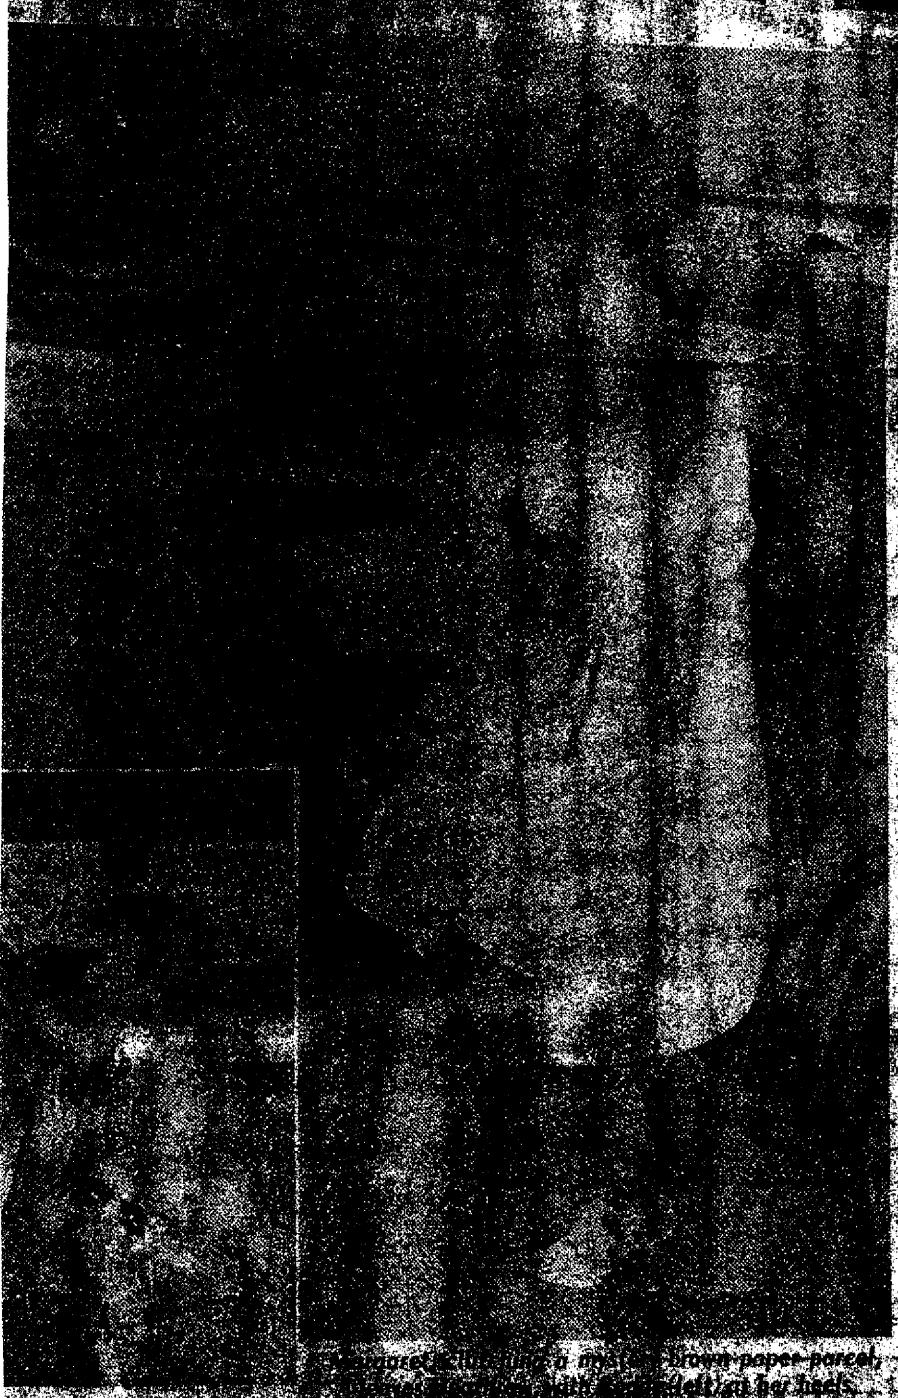

I HAVE uncovered the "recipe" for the bomb which claimed twelve innocent victims in Fistic.

The "recipe" for the napalm fire bomb is set out in graphic detail in a Do-it-yourself manual which is on sale in Britain.

Army intelligence agents are convinced that the "recipe" in the
