Reel No. 33
23 November 1964

1. Back to Dallas - Nelson Benton reporting that law enforcement officers have revealed the most damaging piece of evidence against Lee Oswald yet. Dallas police Chief Jess Curry reported that FBI has a letter in its possession, written to a Chicago mail order house ordering the rifle believed to have been used to kill President Kennedy. The letter was signed by A. Hidell and matches the handwriting of Oswald. Also they have photograph in their possession of Oswald showing him with rifle identical to the one used.
2. Attorney General Robert Kennedy at one point telephoned colleagues and said "don't be sad." His wife spent most of the day at their home with the children after a visit to the White House this morning.
3. Speculation on changes in Cabinet, present and in the future.
4. A big question now is what will happen to Kennedy's closest advisors and other staff personnel.
5. The scene in the East Room of the White House where the body of President Kennedy lies in repose - Steven Banker reporting. Description of scene.
6. Ned Kaller reporting from CBS in New York with Harry Arrow standing by. Results from latest inquiry in Dallas. Oswald was picture of confidence when officers showed him photographs of him holding the rifle. Later he looked frightened. Police still questioning him. Denies he committed any act of violence. Photos found in Oswald's apartment in Irving.
7. More gossip on what will happen to Kennedy dynasty.
