

WBAP --- Fort Worth
Reel No. 10 "B" (Continued)
22 November 1963

16. ABC in New York and Alex Dryer with some observations, broadcasting from Chicago. Discussion on the President and his assassination.
17. Alex Dryer talks about "hate" groups and people. He stated the President was killed by that small minority group that feed on hate, anyone of which would kill the President given the time, the place, and the opportunity.

END OF REEL NO. 10 "B"

WBAP --- Fort Worth
Reel No. 11 "A"
22 November 1963

1. Continuation of comments by Alec Dryer.
2. Discussion by Alec Dryer on the new President's heart attack in 1957. Those who know him best say he is up to the new task.
3. Comments that Chicago has a heavy heart tonight and its mood matches that of all the nation.
4. Appropriate music.
5. Blank and beginning with the news that Mrs. Kennedy was told by the doctors that they never had any hope of saving the President.
6. Report on inevitable trend of events in Washington, by Ray Shearer. President Johnson got out of the helicopter at 6:26 and is conducting his first business now.
7. Comments by Ray Shearer on continuity of our government. Vice President Johnson was in on most everything that has happened in Washington, so he is up on affairs.
8. Tragedies in the Kennaedy family, in the past, were mentioned.
9. Joseph C. Harsh, senior European correspondent of NBC in London. He commented on the tributes of all the leaders that have come from that country. They are just remarkable. Comments on the speech made by Sir Alec Home, and other tributes.
10. Events scheduled for tomorrow given. The body will lie in repose in the East Room.
11. Joseph C. Harsh asked Ray Shearer what difference in policy there is going to be now that Lyndon Johnson is President instead of John F. Kennedy. This is being asked in Europe. Shearer answered that this is a difficult question to answer. They had posed that question to some of the leaders and they seem to think there will be no immediate difference in policy. They said that President Johnson is thoroughly familiar with the workings of the Senate and the House. Great continuity of policy.
12. The question was asked whether President Johnson was not more familiar with domestic problems than with foreign affairs. The consensus is that he is not since he has worked so closely with the Foreign Affairs Committee.

WEAP --- Fort Worth
22 November 1963

13. Comments that President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev seemed to be a perfect match for each other. The reply was that it is not believed there will be any difference in the attitude of President Johnson and President Kennedy.
14. All of the morning London newspapers used exactly the same headline "Kennedy Assassinated."
15. Cabinet meeting continuing. At 8:00 this evening, President Johnson plans to sit down with the leaders of the Senate and the House.
16. A number of the Cabinet members are not here yet. They are flying back from Japan.
17. Nancy Dickerson, NBC news in Washington, interviewing Senator Yarborough from Texas. Senator Yarborough was in the motorcade in the car immediately behind the President's car. The secret service men were in the car between the President's car and the car in which Vice President and Mrs. Johnson and Senator Yarborough were riding. After the first two shots, the secret service men told the people in the Vice President's car to get down, that something very terrible was happening. The motorcade speeded up and went directly to the hospital at a terrific rate of speed.
18. Senator Yarborough says this is the most terrible thing. He was with the President prior to the motorcade.
19. Comments by Adlia Stevenson about the death of President Kennedy.
20. Lee Harvey Oswald has been questioned for two hours about the two deaths. He has denied any connection with either of the two killings.
21. It is important that so many disagree about how many shots were fired. Report on the condition of Governor Connally.
22. The President's body was brought to Washington in a bronze casket, it will be at Bethesda Naval Hospital all night for an autopsy, which is routine in such official deaths.

END OF REEL NO. 11 "A"

WBAP --- Fort Worth

22 November 1963

1. Morgan Beatty - President Kennedy's body brought to Capitol in bronze casket. Sent to Bethesda Naval Hospital for autopsy. Will be brought to White House in morning to lie in repose for family and close friends and associates. Then will go to Capitol Rotunda.
2. Morgan Beatty - Speech that Kennedy was to have made today dealt with foreign policy of U.S. and our place in the world today. One of the places difficulty encountered was Brazil where left wing elements have captured the government. Further discussion of Brazil.
3. Wilson Hall in Rio De Janiero - News of Kennedy's death reached by word of mouth as radio and television closed by strikes. They will begin official five-day mourning period. Kennedy was popular here. People of Brazil shocked and angered by assassination.
4. Morgan Beatty - Nancy Dickerson in Washington reports Senator Hubert Humphrey had related tragically ironic comment that Kennedy recently made. The President of Venezuela had been under attack from both right and left wing extremists. Also Castro Communists have made attempts on his life. President Kennedy recently remarked, "You know, I always worry about the President of Venezuela in the possibility he may be assassinated."
5. Morgan Beatty - Mourning of other nations more intense than we thought.
6. Wells Hengan - Bohn, Germany. Erhardt returned from Paris meeting by train, visibly shaken by news of death. Plans to attend funeral.
7. Beatty & Hengan - Conversation about President Kennedy and German relations. Indication that tragedy may bring Western alliance closer together.
8. Morgan Beatty - Repeat of President Johnson's statement upon arrival at Andrews AFB. Erhardt cabled Johnson that West German government and whose nation will stand beside him and the American people.
9. Evidence that Johnson feels the cares of this office he now holds. Haggard and grieved, seemed alone - a man who bears the burden of the presidency.
10. WBAP - 8:30 David Daniels - Repeat of details of President Kennedy's meeting with Fort Worth at reception. Chronological report of his last day.
11. Appropriate music.
