CHARLES WOODROW GREENER, owner, Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, and a resident of 2015 Rosebud, Irving, was interviewed at his place of business. Mr. GREENER advised that his memory regarding past events and dates has always been very poor and he was not positive that the information he was about to furnish regarding his whereabouts between Friday, November 22, 1963, and Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 28, 1963, would be absolutely correct, but that his information was based on the best of his present recollection.

GREENER stated that between November 22, 1963, and November 28, 1963, he had been in Irving, Texas, at either his place of business or his home. If he had left Irving at any time during this period, it would have been for only a few hours and not overnight.

GREENER stated that during this week's period he naturally had conversed on numerous occasions with his employee, DIAL D. RYDER, at work, but he did not recall RYDER ever mentioning to him that the Irving Sports Shop had worked on a gun for OSWALD. At no time, according to GREENER, did RYDER advise him between November 22, 1963, and November 28, 1963, that he, RYDER, had located a work ticket bearing OSWALD's name.

GREENER stated that the first he knew about any work slip in the name of OSWALD was when he read about it in "The Dallas Times Herald" newspaper on Thanksgiving Day, November 28, 1963, and the news article was a complete shock to him. GREENER stated he was at home on Thanksgiving Day when he read this newspaper article. He then, on the same day, went down to his store and saw the work ticket for a person named "OSWALD".
