Dear Mrs. Meagher:

I have been trying to locate a source of information in the matter raised in the last paragraph of your letter of May 3rd, but have not been successful so far. Some of my contacts suggested Simon Wiesenthal, head of the Jewish office in Vienna that investigates Nazi crimes, but nobody around here seems to know his exact address. However, you may be able to get that address from reference works available in New York.

Thank you for your subscription and the check. I trust you have been receiving TRUTH LETTER regularly.

I shall always be very glad to receive from you any item or communication relating to ^{the} three assassinations that you may feel like publishing in TRUTH LETTER.

Sincerely yours,
