Dear Miss Meagher,

I am terribly sorry that I have been so long in answering your letter of Sept. 17th, but I have been swamped with work these last few weeks.

In a few days, I'll airmail to you a copy of TRUTH LETTER (No. 4) and I hope you will find it to your liking.

I read with great interest your article "Three Assassinations" and I am planning to quote from it briefly in a forthcoming issue of "TRUTH LETTER." However, I can't agree with your current views about Garrison (or have you always felt that way about him?). I think he is absolutely honest and is doing a good job.

Apart from this issue, we are thinking very much along the same lines, it seems to me. So if you will occasionally contribute a short signed piece (or any news item, of course), I shall be very happy to use it.

By the way, I never had a chance to read your book "Accessories After the Fact." Would you care to swap a signed copy of it against a signed copy of my new book "The Dark Side of Lyndon B. Johnson", just out?

Hoping to hear from you again, I remain, with best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

PS. Please use the above new address in Munich from now on.
