Dear Mr. Joesten,

Thank you for your kind letter of the 2nd. I was most interested to learn that you are launching a newsletter and it goes without saying that every attempt to defend the truth about Dallas and the related tragedies, without fear or favor, has my wholehearted support.

I do appreciate your invitation to contribute to the newsletter and will give you my decision after I have seen the first issue or two, if that is agreeable.

Meanwhile, I am enclosing a copy of my current article, "Three Assassinations."

Yours sincerely,
