Your next letter and/or Midwestern Mirror, and

Yours sincerely,

Dear Penn,

David Goldstein too? What is going on? Please let me know approximate date and cause of death, if you find out. Re Honest Joe --you will find references to him as follows:

- 7H 357-58 (Sorrels)
- 12H 432 (Dean)
- 13H 67 (Sorrels)
- Decker Exhibit 5323 (p 486)
- Sorrels Exhibit
- CE 2076 (Sorrels)
- CE 2582 (Jean Hill)

The Jean Hill interview is particularly interesting.

Seth Kantor notes (Volume XX page 376) refer to "501 Elm" as the place "that processed photo" of Oswald with the rifle. The other oddity I mentioned on the phone is in Ruby's testimony, 5H page 205-206.

Thanks for the Xerox of the story on Whaley's death. Known deaths, natural or unnatural, now almost a dozen.

- Alfred McClain
- Hank Killam
- Tom Howard
- Jim Koethe
- Bill Hunter
- William Whaley
- David Goldstein
- Betty Mooney McDonald
- Teresa Norton (?)
- Dorothy Kilgallen (?)
- Robert Ruark (?)

Disappearances:	John Carter	Attempted Murder: Warren Reynolds
	Julia Mercer
	Earlene Roberts (?)

Had a very friendly letter yesterday from Shirley Martin. Too bad it has taken so long for all of us to get in touch. By the way, Leo Sauvage has an article in the New Leader of December 20, "Oswald's Case against the Warren
