37 COLLEGE CHIEFS URGE NIXON MOVE FOR PROMPT PEACE

Warn Invasion of Cambodia Poses New Alienation Peril —Student Strikes Begin

By ROBERT D. McFADDEN

The presidents of 37 colleges and universities urged President Nixon yesterday to "demonstrate unequivocally your determination" to end promptly the United States military involvement in Southeast Asia.

In a letter to Mr. Nixon, the presidents said that "the American invasion of Cambodia" and the weekend bombing of North Vietnam had generated "severe and widespread apprehensions on our campuses."

"We share these apprehensions," the presidents said, adding:

"We implore you to consider the incalculable dangers of an unprecedented alienation of America's youth and to take immediate action to demonstrate unequivocally your determination to end the war quickly."

The signers, representing many of the nation's leading academic institutions, "urgent-ly" requested a meeting with Mr. Nixon.

The letter was drafted by Dr. James M. Hester, the president of New York University, and bore the signatures, among others, of the presidents of Princeton University, Columbia University, the University of Notre Dame, Dartmouth College, the University of Pennsylvania and Johns Hopkins University.

Nationwide Strike Urged

In Washington, the leaders of the National Student Association and the former Vietnam Moratorium Committee called for a nationwide university strike of indefinite duration, starting today, to protest the war and to mobilize public opinion for a withdrawal of United States forces from Indochina. It would involve students, faculty members and administrators.

Antiwar groups at dozens of colleges and universities across the nation, meanwhile, began demonstrations and rallies to protest the Administration's policies.

There were strike pledges from at least 100 colleges and universities, and at some schools the strike began yesterday. Support for the strike was expressed in the editorials of many campus newspapers, along with a condemnation of what some called President Nixon's "illegitimate" decision to send troops into Cambodia.

At many schools, the strike was officially approved by college administrations. Most of

Continued on Page 18, Column 6

College Chiefs Urge Nixon Peace Move

men were moved into the area presidents said: on orders from Gov. Marvin Mandel.

gas to disperse them.

Last night, Governor Mandel intense.'

vania, Sarah Lawrence and vania, Sarah Lawrence and Skidmore College; John Kemreceived the support of all the University, the University of eny, Dartmouth College; James major antiwar groups, including

Continued From Page 1, Col. 6 strators burned an Army truck the campus demonstrations yesterday were peaceful, with some notable exceptions.

At College Park, Md., hundreds of policemen used tear gas last night to quell disorders on the University of Maryland campus and National Guards
At College Park, Md., hundreds of policemen used tear gas last night to quell disorders on the University of Wisconsin.

In their letter to Mr. Nixon yesterday, the 37 university University: John Corbally, Syra-campus and National Guards- yesterday, the 37 university University; John Corbally, Syra-

Last night, Governor Mandel declared a state of emergency on the University of Maryland campus and ordered a curfew imposed from 8:30 P.M. to 6 A.M. Four injuries and more than 100 arrests were reported. What was termed the largest What was termed the largest What was termed to be largest What was termed thte School of Law, voted to discontinue classes.

Strikes were also reported the University of Notre Dame and its sister school, St. Mary's College; Harris Wofford Jr., Old lege; the University of Rhode Island; Rutgers, Drew and Fairleigh Dickinson in New Jersey; Wooster College in Ohio, and at Princeton University, where the boycott was said to have been 95 per cent effective.

Strikes were being planned Strikes were being planned Strikes were being planned.

Also, Joseph Palamountain, Committee coordinator.

"As college and university the New School for Social Re-Mandel.

presidents in contact with large
The police, who had allowed numbers of concerned Ameristudents to block a section of cans, we must advise you that gate University; Roger Howell U.S. 1, a major highway, for six hours, waded into and students and faculty members pushed back a crowd of 1,000 the desire for a prompt end of demonstrators and used the American military involvement in Southeast Asia is output to the pushed back a crowd of 1,000 the desire for a prompt end of Elmendorf, New College, and was to disperse them. in Southeast Asia is extremely Kenneth Pitzer, Stanford University.

disruption in Stanford University's history was marked yesterday by a strike that involved students and faculty members. Carleton College; Mary I. Bunt-live personnel will leave campuses "to mobilize public opinion and to build a national opinion and to Whole departments, including ing, Radcliffe College.
thte School of Law, voted to Also, Luther H. Foster, Tusing Indochina war," they said.

Virginia, Georgetown University and lege; Alan Simpson, Vassar Colothers.

At Berkeley, Calif., demon-College; John W. Chandler, national coordination.

... and the Home Front

The tragic nature of the division of this country, exacerbated by escalation of the war, was underscored yesterday when four students were killed during a confrontation with National Guardsmen and police at Kent State University in Ohio.

Whoever was responsible for the fatal shots must be brought to justice promptly and steps must be taken to make sure that the forces of "law and order" do not themselves become the instruments of further anarchy. Whether or not the fatal shootings were triggered by snipers, it is evident from the eyewitness account of this newspaper's correspondent (who saw and heard no sniper fire) that the National Guardsmen shot at the students without warning in an unconscionable act of military panic. "The troops had run out of tear gas," said the commanding general by way of explanation.

Student provocation through arson, rioting and rockthrowing was great and was also unpardonable. The violence instigated by some antiwar protesters is in no way justified by the violence practiced by their Government overseas.

But more violent self-destruction at home will be the inescapable fate of this great nation unless an Administration elected to uphold the law at home and to bring peace abroad lives up to its commitments—or is held to its promises by the representatives of the people in Congress. At home, as in Indochina, responsible political action is the only sane solution to a dual crisis that is threatening to get out of hand.