Army's Rules Tightly Restrict 'Deadly Force' in Riot Situations

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, May Amy instructions on the use off'deadly force" in a riot situation are explicit—such force tions or when required to save is justified only by "extreme their lives." and when "lesser q"The g mans have been exhausted or the application of force must

This rule is supported by minimum 10 with mission ment."

"application of force" in civil The guidelines dilturbances. state. But it can be assigned of the President and its major. of the President and its major

Federal responsibility for the

in a non-Federal status, the training.

lowever, the rules of engage-

Disurbances and Disasters" They include the following:

When deadly force is used, they needed more sleep, aim where possible to wound, not to kill.

Where other means have are not to load or fire their blaze.

5— weapons except when author-

be minimum force, consistent accomplish-

The guidelines note that the Basically, the National Guard fire with massive fire power, is a state militia under the but warns: "In a civil disturb-cotrol of the Governor in each ance situation, this tactic en-mission is to support the regu-Guard practices, Arnold Sa-One observer of National galyn, who directed the study of military and police response Guard action that resulted in Commission, said today that Guald action that resulted in the killing of four Kent State stuents by Ohio National Guardsmen yesterday was dissaywed today by the chief spresman for the Department for Public Affairs.

Commission, said today unational clients such as the one at Kent State "can happen again and again given the nature of the National Guard, the nature of their weapons and their training."

Mr. Sagalyn, now a private guid belongs to the Gover-not Mr. Henkin said. "The Naional Guard is not presently and related problems, said that in federalized status." and related problems, said that force in the United States tomet devised by the Army for day is getting enough training civil disturbances and disasters to enable them to provide the foin the basic doctrine for the Najonal Guard.

Field manual entitled "Civil tions."

Another staff member of the contains a number of rules ap- Kerner Commission, Melvin L pliable in situations such as Bergheim, director of research the one that confronted the services, noted that the troops trops at Kent State University in Ohio had been under stress for several days and had said

25 Guard Trucks Burn

LEWISTON, Idaho, May failed to control sniping, well- (AP)—Fire broke out today in aimed fire by expert marksmen rows of National Guard trucks is to be used wherever possible parked at an armory here, and and the number of rounds is to firemen said that at least 25 be kept to a minimum to reduce vehicles were destroyed. Police the hazard to innocent persons. Chief Bill Siler said that it Although live ammunition could not be determined incan be issued to soldiers, "They mediately what had started the i