3,500 Columbia Protesters March to City College

By MICHAEL T. KAUFMAN

Nearly everyone on the cambus last night that wound up with a march along day.

A speaker for one group, the College dents who had occupied the Third wave to find the conformation of two decades ago."

Itwo decades ago."

After Mr. Kunstler's remarks, guards carrying nightsticks, and a student from City College fell back.

Squads of city police would be colleged for the College fell back. Amsterdam Avenue to join stu-dents who had occupied the Third World Coalition, empha-South Campus.

McMillan Auditorium at Colum-strike demands. bia for the rally, while 2,000 more listened the proceedings going on in Cambodia and Laos in adjacent rooms.

The speakers included will-bald.

liam M. Kunstler and Gerald He called, among other things, in a straggly cordon marched Lefcourt, the civil rights law-for the dropping of charges north along Amsterdam Avenue to City College, chanting slobeing done among the faculty. There was some organizing to City College, chanting slobeing done among the faculty. Forty-nine teachers banded in a faculty peace committee and drafted a statement supporting The speakers included Wil-said. clared that anyone provoking conspiring to bomb public build-Kunstler. violence would be considered ings. "an agent-provocateur or a pig" The division of the students held of the line of march, but and would be "dealt with ac- at the rally was apparent when there was no police interference. cordingly.'

on the Columbia campus. And lent. it brought out some divisions Mr. Kunstler urged the stu-among three organizations that dents "first to declare a na-stormed Low Memorial Library sity Senate, composed of stu-dents and faculty members. how Germans sat doing nothing two decades ago."

South Campus of City College, sized that his organization sup-About 1,500 students jammed ported the national student the area throughout the sum-

> "But you can't isolate what's from what's going on here," he about a fifth of them stood with The rally came after a doy raised fists and cheered the rally at City College. The Coof caucuses rather than classes speaker, while the rest sat si-lumbia contingent then marched recommendation of the Univer-not wait here and yet wonder broken.

He said they planned to hold erally quiet.

He area throughout the sum
Earlier in the day leaflets free-breakfast program for the children of Harlem.

The Columbia students then

Two police cars were at the the national demands. The division of the students held of the line of march, but are calling for an extended student strike.

The students held a brief back to their own campus.

The university has suspended classes until tomorrow, on the in the world," he said. "We canclasses until tomorrow, of the University has a control of the University has suspended classes until tomorrow, on the in the world," he said. "We cancontrol of the University has a control of the University

12:45, the campus was gen-mer and start a day-care and were distributed on all campus paths by both the Third World Coalition and two other groups, the Radical Caucus and the drafted a statement supporting