Demonstrators Abroad Denounce U.S. Over Cambodia, and Support Students

By DOUGLAS ROBINSON

ter of Rome in a driving rain, the international situation to expand the Vietnam war into expand the Caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by the worsening or the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by the worsening or the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by the worsening or the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by the worsening or the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by the worsening or the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by the worsening or the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by the worsening or the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by men kept the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by men kept the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by men kept the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by men kept the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by men kept the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by men kept the marchers from a proposition of the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by men kept the marchers from a proposition of the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by men kept the marchers from a proposition of the international situation caused, almost everywhere, but essentially in the Far East, by men kept the international situation caused and the i

In Montreal, more than 500 students at McGill University

10 Arrested in Scuffle

following the protest and were 67 black demonstrators in 1960. the police. Ten persons were arrested and windows were broken in the brief scuffle.

The library of the American University Center in Calcutta was ransacked by Indian demonstrators described as Mao-

In Caracas, Venezuelan National Guardsmen fired into the air to disperse 500 students who were threatening to throw ing a large number of placards paint-filled balloons at the United States Embassy.

Protest Persola of Corbons

Protest Parade on Canberra Another large group of pro-into Cambodia as a "dangerous steps" and urged President Nixon streets of Canberra in what to reconsider his action. For-amounted to a dress rehearsal eign Minister Dinesh Singh refor a nationwide moratorium in fused in Parliament to condemn in Auckland, New Zealand, forces: from Cambodia and the reconvening of a Geneva tested during a nonviolent sit-in conference. outside the United States con There was a mixed reaction sulate. In Wellington, the stu-in Israel based on the feeling dent council of Victoria Univer-that while Israel was complainister Keith Holyoake to disso-fense missions inside Egypt, the ciate the Government from "the United States was undertaking bodia.

Pope Paul VI, speaking to a Cambodia by name.

your beloved country has been Middle East will carry more Demonstrations against the United States advance into Cambodia and in support of American student protests broke out in a number of countries yesterday as fresh antiwar sentiment appeared to be growing abroad.

Jour beloved country has been Middle East will carry more suffering — a conflict whose extension, which has taken place in the last few days, threatens once again to multiply the burden of sufferings move in diplomatic language. Léo Hamon, the Government sproad.

Kent Likened to Sharpeville

marched on the United States the leading anti-Government torials were predominantly criti-trewn coffins on the steps in Mail, said that "the name of tives showed a cool support for more against the billings." Kent, Ohio, is going to acquire American actions, while Labor the same symbolic significance members displayed an over-About 250 of the McGill the South African town where the South African police killed as Sharpeville," a reference to whelming sense of disapproval.

But a pro-Government news-paper, Die Transvaler, de-scribed Kent students as "silly asses" who were "stirred up by anarchists and Red agents to oppose the American war effort in Vietnam and Cambodia."

ast Communists. A statue of by the new United States Ambaham Lincoln was damaged bassador, Jerome H. Holland, to the university town of Lund to the university town of forces. In Sweden, a scheduled visit was canceled because of fears of large-scale demonstrations. Students at Lund University were said to have been prepar-

Australia tomorrow in which the United States, saying that demonstrators will call for "it was not going to help in withdrawal of all foreign troops any way." He did, however, call for "withdrawal of all for "withdrawal of all for "combodia and for "from Combodia and "from Combodia and "from Combodia and "from Combodia In Auckland, New Zealand, forces" from Cambodia and for sity decided to ask Prime Min-ing about Russians flying de-American invasion of Cam- a more strenuous type of intervention in Cambodia.

Observers in Jerusalem said group of South Vietnamese durthat the main Israeli preoccuing a general audience at the pation was convincing the So-Natican, deplored the expanished Union that she should not seion of the Vietnam war, alget further involved in the Midthough he did not mention dle East. It is felt, these observable by name servers say, that Mr. Nixon's "On seeing you here," the action in Cambodia means that Pontiff said, "how can one avoil any protest by the United thinking of the conflict which States on the Soviet role in the abroad.

The leaders of several Governments citicized the decision to expand the Vietnam war in ter of Rome in a driving rain, the international situation.

President Nixon was given full and unqualified official support in Greece.