Factory Workers Differ on Protests

By JOHN DARNTON

Special to The New York Times

MAHWAH, N.J., May 7 -MAHWAH, N.J., May / — students, younger people with schools.

"It's just too bad, but it had more money, more education to happen sometime. They and more chance in life than the answer," said another.

"You hear that," said Mr.

ed up at the sun. He did not have much time left in the break from his job as an assemblyman at the mammoth ers had invited violence—"It's pieces are assembled into a be going to college to learn something," interjected another worker, kneeling close by. "What are they doing? Burning down buildings. Locking up teachers. You can't turn on the television without seeing them do something else."

down a twig as he stood and walked away.

With criticism for all sides, a sense of fatality and a restraint on sympathy, a number around the workers' main en1,800, there was more criticism of the 4,700 blue-collar workers trance to the plant. here responded today to questions on their feelings about campus disorders and the killone soft four students at Kent State University.

They offered a variety of They could burn down a miltone students and the fault for school and not bring backgright to protest and found the plant.

"They go to college to raise the Government and less of the students.

"They go to college to raise the Government and less of the Students.

William W. Burch, who fills the new autos with gasoline at the end of the assembly line, thought the students had every only the fault for school and not bring backgright to protest and found the ing that "the country is going Mr. Govia. "I don't care about down the drain." Many of the the schools"—his voice rising with a worker's cap and a walled city.

Thirty-eight per cent of the match for rocks. There's no son, N. J. call for it."

workmen resented that college with emotion-"I'll pay for the should have kept the protest peaceful."

So saying, James Quackenbush, 50 years old. leaned back on the bench and squinted and the bench and squinted and the sun. He did not should have kept the protest they had, were protesting.

"They're supposed to be our future leaders," said one. "If they hate them because they're young, and they hate them because they're education, I wouldn't be wasting my time on the streets."

They had, were protesting.

"You hear that," said Mr. Govia, turning to a visitor. They hate them because they're education, I wouldn't be wasting my time on the streets."

They had, were protesting.

"You hear that," said Mr. Govia, turning to a visitor. They're supposed to be our future leaders, "said one. "If they hate them because they're education, I wouldn't be wasting my time on the streets."

They hat another.

have much time left in the stemmen a feeting break from his job as an asters had invited violence—"It's pieces are assembled into a semblyman at the mammoth unfortunate, but if you live by car 800 times a day, is among Ford factory here.

The sword, you die by the the largest automobile plants the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword, you die by the largest automobile plants are assembled in the sword sword," remarked Joe DiSanto. on the East Coast. It lies
There was only occasional within sight of the New York outrage. Donald Govia, a port-State Thruway, in the foothills ample: workers are black or Fuerto

"It makes me want to vomit, Rican, many of whom commute 'Shoot," he added, throwing ican citizens. Bullets are no Brooklyn, Newark and Pater-

> Among the younger workers His remarks drew opposition and among the Negro workers, opinions on where the fault lion school and not bring back right to protest and found the lay, but seemed united in a feel- one of those four lives," replied Guard's action "horrifying."

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY: Demonstrators gathered outside Courant Institute of Mathematical Sciences, Mercer at Fourth Street. Inside, students were demanding $100,-