ARE YOU TIRED OF DEMONSTRATING?

Try the Politics of Participation

Develop the techniques for effective political action at all levels of government.

The College of Wooster offers its resources for training courses in practical politics focusing on the November elections.

The workshop goals are to enable the participants to return to their campuses and communities to:
More effectively voice student expression;
Provide leadership in political techniques such as polling, voter registration, media utilization, and community organization.

2 Sessions: June 28-July 10
July 12-July 24

Help us reaffirm our commitment to the democratic process.

We need the participation of serious students.
