

3 October 1966

Representative Theodore R. Kupferman
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C.

Dear Congressman Kupferman,

Thank you for your letter of October 4, 1966 and the excerpt from the Congressional Record, which I am glad to have. Indeed, I should be grateful if you would place me on your mailing list for all future material on the subject of the Warren Report. I shall certainly be glad to cooperate with you, if I can be helpful at any time on questions of evidence and testimony.

I should like to call your attention to a number of important publications which should be added to the selected bibliography prepared for you by the Library of Congress, as follows:

The Two Assassins, by Dr. Henatus Hartogs and Lucy Freeman
Thomas Y. Crowell Publishers, New York, 1965

The Warren Commission, The Truth, and Arlen Specter, by Gaetano Fonzi, The Greater Philadelphia Magazine, August 1966
(pp. 38-91)

Who Killed Kennedy? by Conor Cruise O'Brien, New Statesman,
30 September 1966 (pp. 479-481)

The Kennedy Mystery Reopened, by Andrew Kopkind, New Statesman, 29 July 1966

The Flaw in the Warren Report, Lord Devlin, The Observer (London), 9/25/66
Dallas: Pandora's Box is Opened, Cyril Connolly, The London Sunday Times,
25 September 1966

Beyond Reasonable Doubt? unsigned review, The Economist, 9/24/66

The Glamour Rises for Kennedy X-rays, Anthony Howard, The Observer, 8/7/66

Oswald and the State Department, Sylvia Meagher, The Minority of One,
October 1966

How Well Could Oswald Drive? Sylvia Meagher, The Minority of One,
September 1966

Notes for a New Investigation, Sylvia Meagher, Esquire, December 1966

The Journal of Forensic Sciences, July 1966 (contains six critiques of the Warren Report, by Cyril Wecht, Jay Schwartz, Mario Tuchler, etc.)

Man At Large, Alistair Cooke, Manchester Guardian Weekly, 9/29/66

Truth About Kennedy Assassination, unsigned, interview with Arlen Specter, U.S. News & World Report, 10 October 1966

The Vital Documents, Jacob Cohen, The Nation, 7/11/66

I am taking the liberty of sending a copy of this letter to Mr.
Richard Malow at the Library of Congress, for his information.

With my best wishes for the success of your efforts with respect to a reexamination of the Warren Report,

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
