

I'm giving Gervason a rather hard time in my last column of the year - will send it to you. Am afraid I had to do it...

Dear Sylvia,

Thanks for the copy of your letter to R. SALANT.
I must say I found it quite impressive - and, through it, I sort of guessed how lousy the show must have been - despite the praise it has received all over the US press.

The news from N.O. are as grim as ever - and I am afraid Gervitch's resignation was the last straw... I wonder whether Jim G. is going to lose his job, commit suicide, or plainly keep on doing whatever he's been doing?

I'm on vacation here - but if anything comes up, let me know.

Best, as ever,

Philippe.
