PUB. EASTON EXPRESS Easton, Pa.

JUL 1 1 1966

Warren Report Provides Publishers With Windfall

By INEZ ROBB

Both at home and abroad a date of Sept. 8 to Aug. 15. steady stream of books, chal- No critical judgment of either sole assassin.

The favorite dissent in Eu- It is obviously not so much a rope, Latin America and Asia letter as a press release. And it lows.

Now it is quite possible that at nore them. sometime some investigator will be able to prove that the young ignore books whose horror con-President was the victim of a sists in the devastation they do conspiracy, describe the con to popular historical conviction. spiracy and name the conspirators. But no one has done so to is the procedure and methods date.

that he did it at all. Implicit in horrible to consider, must be this theory is the belief not in considered.

a widespread conspiracy, as "Mark Lane's. . . 'Rush to favored by foreigners, but in the Judgment,' a critique of the complicity of two or three per. Warren Commission's insons, particularly the conviction quiry. . . is such a horrifying that at least two persons fired book. . . 'Rush to Judgment' perthe lethal shots.

the lethal shots. However, no one to date has ingly little about what actually been able to name any individu-transpired on Nov. 22, 1963, in al in cahoots with Oswald. Or to point a finger at anyone in I have not seen "Rush to place of Oswald.

In the United States this sum-says. mer there has been a race on to But I have been exposed to stands first with "Inquest" by The assassination of President Edward Jay Epstein. Now, Holt, John F. Kennedy has been an Rinehart and Winston, Inc., has unexpected windfall to only one upped the publication of "Rush sector of the international econ- to Judgment" by Mark Lane omy: the publishing business. from its original publication lenging the conclusions of the book is implied here. But I do Warren Commission, tumble make a judgment on a letter warren commission, tuniote make a juogment on a retter from the presses. So far, all the addressed to me (and no doubt thousands of other newspaper-nem and women) by Arthur A. Commission that Lee Harvey Cohen, vice-president and edi-Oswald acted alone and was the tor-in-chief of Holt, Rinehart and Winston, Inc.

(as well as in certain home-outdoes in overripe, over-grown factions) hinges on the wrought prose any other press "conspiracy theory." Europeans release that I recall in a lifeand Asians, so much of whose time in the newspaper business. history has been conspiratorial, The opening paragraph of Mr. will not be persuaded that Pres-ident Kennedy was not the vice tim of a domestic and/or politi-books are so horrible — horrible by virtue of the directness and cal conspiracy of the right or by virtue of the directness and the left, of capital or labor, or savagery with which they asof whites, blacks, reds or yel-sail commonly-accepted opinion - that we feel obligated to ig-

"At our peril, however, we "When the issue of such books by which a Presidential Com-

Or an investigator may be mission of Inquiry, presided able to prove the pet dissent of over by the nation's highest American critics of the Warren judicial officer, inquires into the Report. This questions that Os-murder of its President, it is a wald did the deed alone or even matter, indeed, which, however suades me that we know terrify.

it is as horrible as its editor get into print with a brace of ar. Cohen's prose which is, in books critical of the Warren Re ay judgment, inflammatory, ir-port. Viking Press has hit the esponsible and in extremely bad taste.

Mr. Lane's book may be truly horrifying, but surely not half so much so as Mr. Cohen's letter, its overtones and its "terrifying" commercial sales pitch.