Dear Sylvia,

Well, I have finally finished Accessories After the Fact, to my relief and my despair! but I do have to get back to "reality" after living in that fantastic dream & nightmare world...

You Can quote anything I have said in my previous letters if you ~~will~~ want to, and ~~will~~ send me a copy for an okay...This book is monumental indeed; it is and will remain the cornerstone ~~for~~ of the continuing investigation of the Warren Commission's fabrications...until at last the truth will be told during our own lifetime, and the national spirit will be ~~renewed~~ renewed and refreshed, as always, by the fact of great and courageous dissent, based on scholarship, justice and reason..." How's that for a new quote, if you want one? But I am sure you will have plenty of more qualified sources to use. My deep congratulations again.
as ever,
