Dear Mrs. Meagher:

I'm sure it is through your kindness that Bobbs-Merrill sent me a copy of your book, "Accessories after The Fact." I am very grateful, and I look forward to reading it with great interest.

I have only had time to look at the beginning, but you appear to be going through the case as thoroughly as would be expected. I felt myself a long time ago that it would be desirable for the Warren Commission members somehow to reconstitute themselves to look over the criticisms and attempt some kind of reply or evaluation, as you suggest in the foreword. I thought there was at least a possibility of this a year ago, but I must say the chances look dimmer as time goes on.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Peter Kihss
