

Letters re Accessories: Excerpts

Harold Feldman, 11/25/68: "...I finished reading and checking your masterly book, which was a coherent joy when it went over familiar ground and a fresh inspiration in the numerous areas where the material was new to me..."

Alison Murray, Detroit, 10/12/68: "I have read all the books on President Kennedy's assassination and have found yours to be the most complete and honest..."

Arch Kimbrough, Dallas, 8/12/68: "It discourages me to find your book has not sold well because I think it is, by far, the best book written on the Warren Commission."

Robert Johnson, Avant Garde, New York City, 1/8/69: "I use ACCESSORIES AFTER THE FACT in relation to my other materials as one would use a dictionary or encyclopedia. It is excellent."
