Dear Mr Grove,

You may recall that you wrote to me just a month ago with suggestions about publishing houses that might be interested in my subject index to the Warren Report and 26 companion volumes (Hearings and Exhibits). I am very pleased to tell you that I have entered into arrangements with Scarecrow Press, one of the companies you were kind enough to recommend, for publication of the index early next year.

Please accept my warm thanks for your interest and help.

Yours very sincerely,
