Dear Mr. Eisenberg,

It would be remiss of me if I did not express my very genuine thanks for the time and trouble you took last night. Please be sure that I do appreciate your willingness to discuss the questions I raised and your readiness to consider other points, if clarification is not forthcoming from other sources. As I promised, I will send you a photocopy of the advertisement; however, it will be a few days before I have access to a Xerox, so please don't think that I have forgotten the matter.

Thank you again for your courtesy and patience.

Sincerely yours,

Sylvia Meagher
