Dear Mr. Jenner,

I read your letter of July 8, 1965, with pleasure and appreciation of your thoughtfulness. Needless to say, I shall look forward with much interest to your promised letter. May I call attention, meanwhile, to my correct address, which is

302 West 12 Street

Your letter of July 8, 1965 was directed to "320" West 12 Street, but fortunately it reached me in the end, with the Post Office instruction "Advise your correspondents or publishers of your correct address."

Thanks again.

Yours sincerely,
