Head: Bought Clothes

Laredo, Texas (AP) Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy, spent some time here on his way to Mexico and bought $32 worth of clothes in a Laredo store.

FBI agents were in Laredo Monday through Wednesday tracing Oswald's activities here and in Nuevo Laredo.

Store employes said the investigators told them a RECEIPT XXXX FROM THE STORE WAS FOUND AMONG OSWALD'S personal belongings. The receipt was dated sept. 26 and the date coincides with the one on which Mexican immigration records indicate Oswald crossed into Mexico at Nuevo Laredo. He returned on Oct. 3.
