

1 November 1969

Dear David:

Further to my letter of 31 October 1969 and the CD's which I was unable to locate, I am happy to say that I have now found some of the strays, as follows:

CD No.	Page Nos.	Comment
5	5-6 8-10	These are included in the #AIC/CIA (SS) file that you sent to me in July 1969 at Boston
5	90-91 96- 98 117	Still missing
735	261-264 273	Enclosed herewith
735	296	This is the Revill interview in which he says that he thinks Givens would change his story for money, previously sent to you on 8/19/69 with CD 5 p 329 as well
735	297	Still missing
897	329-343 438-439	Enclosed herewith

With the enclosures sent now, plus those sent yesterday, I have now supplied 125 pages out of the 139 pages you requested. Of the still unfilled request, 6 pages are already in your possession as indicated above. Therefore, only 8 of the 139 pages remain lost-strayed-or-stolen, and I suggest that it will be more economical to include them in your abnp microfilm order than to invest the time and labor required to search further, with no assurance of success.

Now I have a further problem, which is that the local post offices are closed (Saturday) and I cannot possibly make the trip to the main post office at 34th Street; and I have very few stamps on hand. I will put what I have on the envelope, but you may have to pay "postage due" at your end, I hope you don't mind, but I'd rather do that than delay mailing this envelope until Monday.

Regards,
