Dear Miss Meagher:

Thank you for your letter prompted by the article, "A New Wave of Doubt," which appeared in the July 12, 1966 issue of LOOK.

The editors read with care your comments regarding Fletcher Knebel's criticism of the book Inquest, by Edward J. Epstein. While they were naturally sorry to learn that this article displeased you, the editors, nonetheless, appreciated the opportunity to learn your own ideas concerning the assassination of the late President Kennedy and your own evaluation of the thoroughness of the Warren Commission's Report.

Thank you again for your interest in writing to LOOK.

Cordially,

Anne Celli
