Dear Mr. Farrell,

I appreciate your kind remarks about Accessories After the Fact. As for Garrison, I feel about him exactly as I feel about the Warren Commission, as detailed in the enclosed copies of letters to the editors of Playboy and The New York Review of Books sent last September.

The Reporter is a magazine, published monthly, I believe, address 660 Madison Avenue, New York City. The Minority of One is a monthly magazine which carries no advertisements whatever and is issued independently by M. S. Aronson, editor and publisher, 155 Pennington Avenue, Passaic, N.J. 07055.

So far as I know, no one has contacted Stanley Kaufman for the names of the inmates who witnessed the assassination. He gave the Commission the name of his client, as mentioned in my book, but as I understood his testimony he did not himself have the names of other inmates, he merely suggested that they could be obtained from the Sheriff's office.

I trust that this information is helpful.

Yours sincerely,
