

LOWENSTEIN LEGACY: The question of how to honor the late Al Lowenstein has received a partial answer: on Sunday, June 29, at the Beacon Theater, Pete Seeger, Peter Yarrow, David Amram, Floyd Westerman, and others will appear at an Allard Lowenstein Memorial Concert. Saluting the political activist who was shot to death in his office last March. The concert will benefit the Encampment for Citizenship, a summer program in democratic government for teenagers that Lowenstein attended as a boy and was involved with in recent years. Tickets are available from $8.00 and up at the Beacon, 74th St. and Broadway, from Ticketron, or by calling 787-2714.

June 12, 1980, The VILLAGER, Page 7