

5-3-68

NY
Pos 5
P.5

Four Weeks Later . . .

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King's planned Poor People's Campaign gets underway in Memphis, four weeks after he was killed there. His successor, the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, and his brother, the Rev. A. D. King, hold reins of two mules leading march to Washington. Story on Page 22.

Associated Press Wirephoto