

Persons involved in Investigation of Assassination of Martin Luther King

Abernathy, Ralph: Witness to the shooting
Aeromarine Supply Company, Birmingham: Sold the alleged murder rifle
Alonzo, Clovina: Mother of Charles and Marie Stein, interviewed by FBI in New Orleans
Anchutz, Willie: Boarder at Memphis rooming house
Arvidson, Rod: Manager of National Dance Studios, Long Beach, Calif.
Bailey, Mel: Sheriff, Birmingham
Bell, Charles: FBI agent
Birmingham Trust National Bank: Galt maintained safe deposit box this Birmingham bank
Bowles, Jay: Reporter for States Item, writing from Memphis
Bradshaw, Lt. R. W.: Memphis police officer assigned car 160
Branch, Ben: Witness to the shooting
Brewer, Bessie: Landlady, Memphis rooming house
Caldwell, Earl: NY Times reporter, writing from Memphis
Canipe, G. W.: Witness to the dumping of the rifle by suspected assassin
Capote, Truman: Famous personality who speculated King killed by leftist conspiracy
Cherpes, Peter: Owner of Birmingham rooming house where Galt stayed
Clark, Evert: NY Times reporter, writing from Washington
Clark, Ramsey: U.S. Attorney General, spokesman for lone assassin/no conspiracy
Cleveland, Lynn R.: Itinerant preacher picked up for questioning and released
Curtis, Raymong: Fellow-inmate of Ray
Danale, Phil: District Attorney of Memphis
Davis, C. J.: Boarder, Birmingham rooming house
Del Monte, Bo: Bartender, Rabbit Foot Club
Economy Grill and Rooms: Rooming house Birmingham where Galt stayed
Egan, Cy: Reporter, N.Y. Post
Eskridge, Chauncey: Witness at emergency room where King died; close associate.
Fletcher, Lt. Roberto: Mexican police officer
Francisco, Dr. Jerry: Professor of pathology and medical examiner, King autopsy
Galt, Eric Starvo: Alleged alias of James Earl Ray
Galt, Rev. Ralph: Questioned by FBI in search for Eric Starvo Galt
Gamble, James: FBI chief, Birmingham
Garrison, Jim: District Attorney of New Orleans
Hanlon, John: FBI agent
Herron, W. C.: Alleged alias of James Earl Ray
Holloman, Frank: Police Director, Memphis
Hoover, J. Edgar: All Kneel!
Huston, W. P.: Chief of Detectives, Memphis Police
Ingalls Shipbuilding Corporation, Pascagoula, Miss: Galt said he had worked here

International School of Bartending, Los Angeles: Galt was a student here
Jesse, Jackson: Witness to the killing
Jensen, Robert: FBI agent in charge Memphis
Jergensen, Andreas: Instructor, dance studio, Long Beach, Calif.
Jones, Solomon, Jr.: Witness to the killing
Kennedy, Daniel Davis: Suspect picked up and released in Mexico
Kennedy, Pearl: Mother of suspect, resident of Baltimore
King, Rev. A. D. Williams: Brother of Martin Luther King, Jr.
Kyles, Rev. Samuel: Close colleague with whom MLK was to dine when assassinated
Larsen, David: NY Post reporter
Lau, Tomas Reyes: Director of Int'l School of Bartending, Hollywood
Lee, Mrs. Leroy: Sister of Charles Stein
Loeb, Henry: Mayor of Memphis
Lomax, Louis: Reporter and investigator
Lowmyer, Harvey: Alleged alias of James Earl Ray
Maddox, Lester: Theorist of a left-wing conspiracy against King
Martin, Marie: Employee at Sultan Room, cousin of Charles Stein
McBride, James: Alleged alias of James Earl Ray
M'Kee, Don: Reporter, New Orleans States Item, writing from Birmingham
Morrison, Jim: Relief bartender
Mull, John: FBI agent in charge Arizona
National Dance Studios, Long Beach, Calif: Where Galt took lessons
Norton, Kathy: Dance instructor, Long Beach
O'Conner, James: Alleged alias of James Earl Ray
Paisley, William D.; Birmingham resident who sold Mustang to Galt
Payne, Capt. T. L: Alabama Highway Patrol
Peters, Joe: Bartender Sultan Club
Peterson, Dr. Donald B.: Prison psychiatrist found Ray without homicidal traits
Poston, Ted: NY Post reporter writing from Memphis
Price, Bill: Assistant Police Chief Memphis
Provincial Motel, New Orleans: Where Ray stayed December 1967
Rabbits Foot Club, Los Angeles: Where Galt was a patron
Ray, James Earl: Escaped convict alleged by FBI to be Eric Starvo Galt
Ray, Jerry: Brother of James Earl Ray
Reeves, B. L.: Boarder at Memphis rooming house
Sprague, Mildred: U.S. Commissioner who signed FBI warrant
Stein, Charles: Companion of Galt on trip to New Orleans
Stein, Rita: Sister of Charles Stein
Stephens, Charlie Q: Boarder at Memphis rooming house
St. Francis Hotel, Los Angeles: Where Galt stayed
Sullivan, Joseph: FBI Inspector, despatched to Memphis

Sultan Room: Bar in Los Angeles visited by Galt nightly

Swenson, Harold: Warden of prison from which Ray escaped

"Tomnie": Supposed friend of Ray in New Orleans

Veloz, Rolando Canales: Mexican consult in Memphis

Waldron, Martin: NY Times reporter, writing from Memphis, Birmingham, etc.

Walton, James: Alleged alias of James Earl Ray

Weeks, A. C.: Official of Ingalls Shipyard

Weiler, R. J.: Name given as reference by Galt

Whalen, Rep. Charles W., Jr.: Congressman critical of FBI in Memphis and Dallas cases

Willard, John: Alleged alias used by Galt/Ray

Young, Andrew: Witness to the killing