Dear Sylvia,

As Maggie has told you, I will be in Boston for the next 2-3 weeks (leaving here tomorrow). After I'm through there I intend to come down to New York and Philadelphia for a day or two to see you and Vince, and then to Washington for a first-hand look at the Zapruder film. I'll be in touch with you in plenty of time to arrange a mutually convenient date, and am certainly looking forward to our meeting.

Please, Sylvia, have no regrets at having me send a copy to Silvers. I appreciate your help, and don't feel ~~is~~ I've been hurt at all by his seeing it. At any rate he is returning it to me.

I noticed that Popkings book contained a reference to the blood on the two fragments contrasted to the lack thereof on ~~the~~ 399, ~~is~~ whereas his original article had no such reference. Whether he got this from my piece or not, I'm not wounded by it.

I read with interest your fine piece on ~~the~~ "Oswald's" driving. It's a damn shame your entire ms hasn't gotten into print.

Sincerely, Ray
