Dear Sylvia --

Thanks for the advance text of O'Brien's piece. You were completely correct. Not only is it a very favorable review of "Accessories" (as any intelligent and objective review of it would have to be) but it is also a ~~superlative~~ superlative statement on the liberal reaction to the W.R., and for the urgent need for a total re-opening ~~of the case~~ and re-investigation of the case. ~~It is also a~~ It ~~is~~ also contains a fine, balanced view of ~~the~~ Leves' contribution. And, I would add, a brief put-down of the ridiculous cop-out position of Thompson (whether aimed specifically at him or not) by demonstrating the asininity <sup>of the</sup> view of "multiple assassins" but "no conspiracy".

Would you consider granting permission, (and asking Annou for his) to reprint it ~~verbatim~~ in the Free Press? (of course, with proper credit to T.M.O. and to appear only after T.M.O. is on the local stands). I've got the editor, Art Rankin, turned on to the case. Their circulation is now up to approx. 60,000 and growing, including app. 7000 in New York. (I haven't even asked Rankin if he would reprint it -- but I'm absolutely certain he would be glad to. Love, Ray
