

29 December 1966

Dear Penn, and
Dear Shirley,

This is a hasty joint letter to both of you, to congratulate you on your co-authorship of Volume II, and to wish you both a very Happy 1967, and to share with you my good news: Bobbe-Merill has accepted my manuscript for publication, and plans to bring out the book in the fall of 1968. I received the news only yesterday and I am still dazed, but happy. And I know that you will both be happy, too, at this development. Let us continue as long as need be in the search for the truth that unites all of us in such good fellowship and friendship.

All my love,
