Wow! that was a good job you did on Jenner. Why, that no-good son-of-a-bitch, how does he dare say some of those things? Sylvia, really, what makes people do this? Is it stupidity? Did he really believe those statements when he made them? My God, they are incredible. I hope you are sending out many copies to as many newsmen as you can think of. I would appreciate one more copy myself if you can spare it. I have a dear lady friend (who will not speak out but is with us anyway) who listens to the radio all the time and she has been following the developments on the case this way.

The news on your book is wonderful. I know it is going to be one of the best because of your general level of scholarship and fairness. Oh, Sylvia, are we getting anywhere? That lousy Manchester thing made me sick. He doesn't know any more about the case than Warren. I am sure his current history interviews are excellent (his remarks on Connally were terrific, and Connally and the Dallas papers are ~~xxx~~ hopping mad). But his views on the assassination show no research work at all. I am trying to answer him on his asinine brown-paper-bag remarks. The Dallas papers (and Tulsa papers) are all slamming the Kennedys and saying how wonderfully LBJ behaved--but no one has seen fit to use the WR to back up Manchester's allegations on LBJ and Dallas. LBJ did not even cross the hall to put his arm around Mrs. K. on learning JFK was dead; but instead slunk out of Parkland and slouched down in Curry's car for ride to Love Field. Can you imagine JFK acting this way if Ladybird were in the same situation in a strange hospital in Massachusetts? LBJ says SS ordered him to behave this way, but since when has any President (lest of all LBJ) listened to the SS!

Oh, well, history will dispose of LBJ.

Have gotten unlisted phone in order to avoid calls from Mama. She called me three times in one day (collect) to cuss out Jackie. I couldn't take any more of her. Manchester's description of her is excellent. She is definitely insane, no doubt at all. If she and Lee shared this (as they shared excessive perspiration and body odor--a chemical, hormone imbalance--some say this is the root to schizophrenia?), then ~~they may~~ ~~xxxx~~ was Lee the assassin? Still-- the facts don't fit. This is what I keep coming back to--the facts just don't fit.

I must close today. My typing is worse than usual. I have had the most terrible sinus attack--I told the kids that you would wonder why I hadn't written about your book. But I hope we are good enough friends ^{so} that you know when there is a pause, there is a reason for it.

I got a nice letter from H. Weisberg and replied to it. I think WW 2 was very good and I have ordered WW 3.

But, again, AM I GLAD YOU GAVE IT TO JENNER. I hate that bastard. I have hated him for months. Have at him again--any time. Much, much love, S.
