Dear Shirley,

If Jackson really went to the top of the knoll, I think it is very significant, exactly for the reasons you indicate. Here is a copy of the Pierce Allman stuff, you can keep it.

The only "Bird" I recall is the Glen Bird who was a former Justice of the Peace and who gave Ruby somekind of press card or complimentary card; I think you might be able to locate the interview with him by consulting the Subject Index, under "Ruby: Means of Entry, Press Card."

I am sorry to say that Mamie O. has started to call me again. About ten days ago, she called, apparently just to ask what is new, when is my book coming out; and for once she did not use the occasion to make bitter attacks on all and sundry. Then she called again this past Sunday, this time to give me various errands and research jobs. I had just begun to say, Mrs. O—, My time is very limited—when, bing, there was a disconnect, or maybe she hung up. When the connection was not resumed, I dialed her number in Fort Worth, but there was no answer. So I wrote her, lest she assume that I hung up on her...And I suppose I will go on the shit list, which must be twenty pages long.

We have visiting firemen at the office, from our Headquarters, and I dare not take another minute. Much love,

Hastily,
