

Sylvia, I can't tell you how awful I feel about not writing. Getting a divorce takes more time than I realized.

Have you seen the New Yorker article? When it comes out, tell me the month will you?

This is going to be ridiculously fast because I have three hours of driving ahead of me today and no housework done yet. Vickie is dating a lovely Jewish boy whose mother is a writer. I am so happy. Nothing will come of it, of course, but Jewish people make the best husbands generally. My God! that boy would fall down if he read this!

Sylvia, the review in TMO was beautifully written which is always the case with whatever you do. Naturally I am hurt over the way you (over) react to the Kennedys, but I am not going to change you and you are not going to change me. So let's be friends anyway.

You probably won't like what I wrote to Harold W. (enclosed), but love me in spite of it. Some day, when we are old ladies, we'll get together and have ~~xx~~ a good laugh over everything.

Bill has ^{an} excellent article in RAMPARTS on ^{the} case. Let me know what you think. I am glad somebody is at last making something of the fingerprinting-before-paraffin. I spent an hour or so at Tulsa police station in '65 working on that--and did satisfy myself in this regard--but never did get anyone except Bill to take an interest in it. At any rate, this is why Lee said: "I know what you're trying to do."

Not a word from Mama, even by mail. Strange. Maggie met Thayer and Thayer wrote me glowingly about her. She really made an impression on him! Please tell her this. Everyone likes & needs compliments!

Write soon. Much love, S.

I am repelled by the Arab-Israeli mess. How much is this another LBJ-CIA Sukarno-type conf against Nasser? I cannot take seriously Israel's claim that the U.S.A. did not aid in the attacks, at any rate. I see the beginning of the end here for Nasser, & I smell a Texas rat.

My God! Are the Jewish intellectuals really going to help Johnson pull this one!
