Dear Shirley and Mike,

Please accept my congratulations and all my good wishes on your marriage. I apologize for not having written sooner, and I haven't really any worthy excuse except a general state of lethargy and blackness of mood which I haven't been able to shake off since 4/4/68.

Friday the 17th of May seems fine and I will look forward to seeing you both, about 8 p.m. at my apartment (the entrance is on 8th Avenue, just at 12th street, next to huge pharmacy, apt. 15D). I work until 6 or 6:30 and if I don't find a cab it takes an hour to get home, so I suggest 8 o'clock to be on the safe side. We can go nearby to Pappas for dinner--I take most visiting critics there, and everyone has liked it.

I'm looking forward to meeting you both, after so long a time, and wish you a good trip here and, of course, a most happy honeymoon.

As always,

Sylvia Meagher
