Dear Sylvia:

A hasty note to pass along a couple of copies of the vol. 5 index. I'm sending a batch to Paul as well.

The contract, check, and questionnaire arrived yesterday. Many thanks. The contract is signed and on its way to Scarecrow.

I'll now get to work on putting together the master indexes. My plan is to get the students to work on the names as soon as possible. I first want to go through all the indexes and work out a standard form for the entries. Then I'll give them each copies of the indexes and note cards. A week or so should be time enough for them to get them back to me. Meanwhile, I'll be putting together the master subject index. On the latter I plan to use your WC index as the basic model. Will keep you posted on our progress.

For now, I'd best get through the pile of essays and exams that have been piling up (shamefully) over the past couple of weeks.

Best regards,

Henry

P.S. As soon as I can I'll send along a preliminary list of subject headings for your comments.
