Dear Sylvia,

I appreciated your kind note of January 30. I'm not sure just what is happening at present with the Scott-Hoch-Stetler-Thompson book, except that everything spells delay. What a pity!

I hope your index moves along more efficiently. If I can be of any help at the proofreading stage, please feel free to call on me. Sometimes an outside pair of eyes can spot things that the authors have stared at too long to notice. If I can help in any way, just let me know.

There now seems a fairly good chance that we'll be moving to the East Coast this summer. I hope such a move may enable us to meet one another before the year is out.

With warmest regards,

Yours,

Russ
