

8 April 1968

Dear Shankar,

I was anxious to have your special delivery letter end our correspondence with regard to your ms. However, it will trouble my conscience if I stay silent and fail to point out to you--for the record and with the understanding that no reply is needed--that I have read pages 98 and 112 of the Fawcett edition of RJ, as you suggested, but found no basis therein for the assertions and/or arguments set forth in the corresponding passages of your manuscript.

Best personal regards,

Hastily,

Sylvia Meagher