Dear Paul,

Thanks for your letter of the 15th and for the clip of the article by Alfreda Scobey, which I am sending on to Tink Thompson. I haven't any special comment on the article; it doesn't really confront any of the criticism, despite its tone of calm reason and willingness to admit the existence of a few unresolved troubling problems such as Connally's "delayed reaction."

I'll be glad to look over your manuscript when it is ready.
Meanwhile, my kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,
