Dear L.A.,

I renewed my subscription to the MM on 10 January 1969 (check $6.00, no. 711, deposited on 14 January to account of MM, Inc., at Mercantile National Bank, Dallas). However, I have not received a copy since the issue of 23 January 1969 with the editorial on Bill Boxley.

Have my copies gone lost? If so, please send me all back numbers for February and March 1969. I had been looking forward to reading Penn's account of the Shaw trial, since reading somewhere that he was present in the courtroom.

I hope you are all well and thriving. It's been a long time between letters, hasn't it? Too long by far...but I guess we both understand and regret the reasons. Do drop a line when you get a chance and tell me how you are.

All the best,
