Dear Ms. Meagher:

Thank you for your letter of January 9th and its very insightful comments. I regret that because of the many involvements with several major matters of legislation, namely, Mass Transit, the Presidential Commission on Marijuana and opposition to the war in Vietnam, I am not able to undertake your proposal to obtain a review of the Warren Commission Report.

I do believe that if such an undertaking were to be a success, it would have to be proposed by a member of the Judiciary Committee and I am not a member of that committee.

May I suggest, therefore, that you offer your services to either one of the New York members who are Chairman Emanuel Celler and Representative William F. Ryan.

Sincerely,

Edward I. Koch
