Dear Miss Meagher:

Thank you for your very kind letter & helpful enclosure.

Yes, I knew of your book - Merril book, but confess that I did not acquire it, as by 1967 I had abandoned my plan to do a book on Oswald for reasons which I would rather outline than we meet. (I hope it will be soon - during my next trip to New York.)

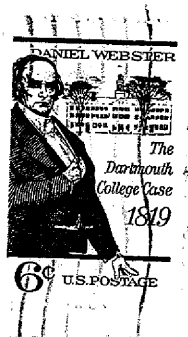

I am working on my autobiography and am seriously thinking of devoting a long chapter to my interviews with Marina & others in Dallas early in 1964. Your offer of assistance is most appreciated, regardless of our differing views, but I am sure that you share with me a conviction that the full truth of the Dallas tragedy is still to be unveiled and given to the world.

Sincerely,

Isaac Don Levine
