Dear Mr. Stamm:

You were quite right--I have done some digging into the John Kennedy assassination and hearings and have offered seminars on the assassination. I am quite willing to exchange views with you, but suspect that I would not be able to keep my end up. I am deeply involved in finishing a book in quite another area and simply haven't got time for much correspondence.

Thank you for the good words about my piece and for taking the trouble to write. And pass along, please, my respects to Sylvia Meagher.

Sincerely,

Richard Drinnon
