Dear Sylvia,

You must have thought I'd ceased to exist!

Not really. Just the combination of 4 1/2 courses plus a lot of political conflict has been perfectly exhausting. A 12 hr. sleep last night has returned me to a semblance of normality.

Whenever I get a moment free over the past few weeks I'd read a bit of The Edge of History, a fascinating book! I don't get grasp about he is going or what he is about but he writes beautifully and lucidly. Thanks so much for quantity we with it. I'll bring it up with me the next time I come.

I referred a Swiss correspondent named Sherwood to you last week.

Affectingly,
W. C. C.
