Dear Mr. Stamm:

Under separate cover we are sending you three copies of the July, 1972 issue of "Computers and Automation" which contains your and my article. We were very pleased to publish it, and thank you again.

How about another article for us some time soon?

Yours sincerely,

Ed Berkeley

This is first word from B. He must have rewritten letter to Salandria and done who knows what else: "Articles" not yet in hand.

Another article? On what? When? How long?

The man is odd.

What's with you? O.K?
