Dear Sylvia,

I am currently going through my files and gathering material which I have discovered for a memo I plan to release to selected critics of the Report. Among the items which I plan to include in the memo are the further discrepancies in Charles Givens story which I sent to you in a letter last September. Since I am particularly interested in the Givens incident I would like to obtain a copy of your article in the August 13, 1971 issue of the Texas Observer. I would immensely appreciate it if you would send me a copy (or photocopy) of the article.

I will send you a copy of the memo when it is completed. I invite your comments and criticisms on it when you receive it. I hope this letter reaches you in good health and spirit.

Sincerely,

Ross Ralston
